

Faculty of Geography University of Bucharest

GEOGRAPHY WORKSHOP :

Connecting Spaces:
*Interdisciplinary Approaches
in Geography Education and Community Research

June 18th 2024, 11.00
Conea Room

RCGTA Research Centre on GEODEMOGRAPHIC AND TERRITORIAL ANALYSIS

GEOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

Connecting Spaces: Interdisciplinary Approaches in Geography Education and Community Research

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

11.00-12.00: SESSION 1

1. Prof. PhD. Raziye Çakicioğlu Oban - New teaching approaches in geography education
2. Master student Angelo Andi Petre - Assessing spatial accessibility to high schools in Romania
3. PhD. student Alexandra Cioclu - Spatial accessibility to cardiovascular care. Study case: Romania
4. PhD. student Cristian Cazacu- Rural accessibility to primary care in Romania

12.00-13.00: SESSION 2

1. Prof. PhD. Liliana Dumitrache - Türkiye – Romania scientific collaboration in Geography and Geographical Education: reflecting on the past and looking towards the future
2. PhD. Ana-Maria Taloş - Utilising open-source data from social media platforms to make GIS based analysis in tourism. Case Study: Bucharest
3. PhD. student Adrian Toma - Social and economic consequences of demographic aging in the South-West region of Romania
4. PhD. student Alina Caloian - Spatial inequalities in access to healthcare services in the South – Eastern region, Romania